Numb. 9110.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 12, to Saturday November 16, 1751.

Weſtminſter, November 14.

HIS Majeſty came this Day to the Houſe of Peers, and being in his Royal Robes ſeated on the Throne with the uſual Solemnity, the Honourable Sir Henry Bellenden, Gentleman Uſher of the Black Rod, was ſent with a Meſſage from His Majeſty to the Houſe of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the Houſe of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majeſty was pleaſed to make the following moſt gracious Speech.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is with great Satisfaction that I meet you in Parliament, at this Time, when the Continuance of the Publick Tranquillity, and the flouriſhing Condition of my Kingdoms, leave us nothing to deſire, but to ſecure and improve our preſent Situation. To this End all my Views and Meaſures have been directed both at Home and Abroad; and, in this State of Things, nothing can give me more real Pleaſure, than to obſerve thoſe ſolid Advantages, which my good Subjects reap from it, in their Trade and Manufactures; ſome Branches whereof have alſo received conſiderable Benefit, from the wiſe Proviſions which have been made by this Parliament.

The Treaty lately entered into with the Elector of Bavaria, was laid before you in your laſt Seſſion; and I then acquainted you, that I was taking ſuch further Meaſures, as might tend to ſecure the Tranquillity of the Empire; ſupport its Syſtem; and timely prevent ſuch Events, as had been found by Experience to endanger the Common Cauſe. I have ſince, for the ſame Purpoſes, in Conjunction with the States General of the United Provinces, found it neceſſary to conclude a Treaty with the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony; which ſhall be communicated to you.

The unfortunate Event of the Prince of Orange's Death, has made no Alteration in the State of Affairs in Holland; and by the prudent and early Meaſures taken there, the Quiet of that Country has been preſerved, and their Government carried on upon the Foundation of the Settlement, which had, with ſo much Foreſight, been previouſly eſtabliſhed by Laws of the Republick. I have received the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances from the States General, of their firm Reſolution to maintain that ſtrict Union and Friendſhip, which ſo happily ſubſiſt between me and thoſe ancient and natural Allies of my Crown.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I have ordered Eſtimates of the Expences of the enſuing Year to be prepared and laid before you; and have no other Supplies to aſk of you, but ſuch as are requiſite for thoſe Services, and for making good ſuch neceſſary Engagements, as you are made acquainted with. The Succeſs which has attended your Firmneſs in reducing the Intereſt of the National Debt, will, I am confident, give you the greateſt Satisfaction.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The Experience I have had of your dutiful and ſteady Conduct, makes it wholly unneceſſary for me to preſs upon you Unanimity and Diſpatch in your Deliberations. But I cannot conclude, without recommending to you, in the moſt earneſt Manner, to conſider ſeriouſly of ſome effectual Proviſions to ſuppreſs thoſe audacious Crimes of Robbery and Violence, which are now become ſo frequent, eſpecially about this great Capital; and which have proceeded, in a great Meaſure, from that profligate Spirit of Irreligion, Idleneſs, Gaming, and Extravagance, which has of late extended itſelf, in an uncommon Degree, to the Diſhonour of the Nation, and to the great Offence and Prejudice of the ſober and induſtrious Part of my People.

Whitehall, November 2, 1751.

WAlter Titley, Eſq; His Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary to the Court of Denmark, has tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State, the following Account from Copenhagen, dated the 30th of October N. S. It having been found neceſſary to change the Situation of the Fire kept hitherto upon a Sand-Bank, at the Point of Jutland, called Schagen, for the Uſe of Mariners; His Daniſh Majeſty has ordered Notice thereof to be given to the Publick, and, in Purſuance of that Order, the proper Officers ſent an Advertiſement, accompanied with a Memorial, to Mr. Titley, deſiring him to tranſmit the ſaid Advertiſement to England, for the Information of the Britiſh Traders to the Baltick; of which Advertiſement the following is a Tranſlation.

Advertiſement.

WHereas the Sand-Hill at Schagen, upon which a Fire has been kept hitherto in the Night Time for the Direction of Ships ſailing through the Cattegat, is almoſt waſhed away by the Sea; and there is now erected, inſtead of the ſaid waſting Sand-Hill, a Tower of Sixty Four Feet high, ſtanding further within the Land at the Diſtance of Eight Hundred Feet from the Sand-Hill, and Four Hundred Feet more towards the North; upon which Tower the Fire is to be kept for the Future, and to commence on the $\frac{\text{21ſt of January, O. S.}}{\text{1ſt of February, N. S.}}$ in the enſuing Year 1752: Therefore, by Order of the King of Denmark, Norway, &c. this Notice is given to the Publick, to the End that Mariners, being duly apprized of the Alteration beforehand, may regulate their Courſe through the Cattegat accordingly.

Should the foreſaid Sand-Hill happen to be deſtroyed and carried quite away, by any violent Storm, before the Time abovementioned, in that Caſe a Fire will immediately be lighted up upon the Tower, inſtead of that which has hitherto burnt upon the Sand-Hill.

Copenhagen, from the Office of his Majeſty's Privy-Purſe, the 25th October 1751.

Naples, Oct. 26. In Conſequence of a Reſolution lately taken by the King to erect a Port at Cotrone, on the Coaſt of Calabria, they have began to make the neceſſary Diſpoſitions for carrying that Work into Execution. The erecting the Fort at Barletta goes on very ſucceſsfully; and, according to Advices from Sicily, that of Giorgenti is already ſo forward as to receive ſmall Ships. The Commiſſary of War, who withdrew from Orbitello with about ten thouſand Ducats of the King's Money, which were lodged in his Hands for paying the Troops of that Garriſon, has been arreſted in the Eccleſiaſtical State, at his Majeſty's Requeſt. He has ſince been brought to this City, eſcorted by a large Body of Soldiers, and Proſecutions are carrying on againſt him with the utmoſt Rigour. On Saturday laſt was felt here and in this Neighbourhood, a very ſmart Shock of an Earthquake; but we don't hear it has done any conſiderable Damage.

Leghorn, Oct. 30. Notwithſtanding the Plague is greatly abated at Conſtantinople, we ſtill continue to take all imaginable Precautions againſt its being brought here in any Goods or Merchandize whatever, for which Reaſon all Ships coming from the Levant are obliged to perform the ſtricteſt Quarantine. The Maſter of a Ship juſt arrived from Baſtia aſſures us, that the Detachments of Troops which were ſent by the Marqueſs de Curſay, amongſt the diſſatisfied Pieves or Communities, and particularly that of Niolo, which had been joined by ſome of the Neighbouring ones, were all returned to their reſpective Quarters, and that every Thing ſeemed now quiet again in the Iſland of Corſica. The laſt Advices received here from Spain aſſure us, that his Catholick Majeſty has lately publiſhed an Ordonnance in Favour of all thoſe who ſhall fit out armed Veſſels to cruize againſt the Corſairs of Barbary, by which they are entitled to the Whole of all Prizes that ſhall be taken by them, without being lyable even to pay the uſual Duties.

Genoa, Nov. 2. The Aſſemblies of the Great and Leſſer Councils, which have been ſuſpended for ſome Weeks paſt, on Account of the Abſence of moſt of the Members of the Regency, who have been ſpending the Autumnal Seaſon at their reſpective Country Seats, were opened again a few Days ſince, and have under Conſideration the neceſſary Means for eſtabliſhing the Credit of the Bank of this City, and for preſerving the Tranquillity of the Iſland of Corſica. We learn from Naples, that ſome Deputies were lately arrived there from a Diſtrict of Eſclavonia, who having obtained an Audience of the King, had informed his Majeſty that the People they repreſented, not being able any longer to live in their own Country, on Account of the many heavy Taxes that were laid upon them, were obliged to ſeek out for a Livelihood elſewhere; and that having been informed of the Mildneſs of his Majeſty's Government, they were deſirous of becoming his Subjects, and therefore beſought his Majeſty to grant them a certain Diſtrict in his Dominions belonging to the Crown; to allow them Proviſions for one whole Year, and an Exemption from all Duties and Taxes for twenty Years; and in that Caſe, they would ſolemnly engage to become faithful Subjects to his Majeſty and his Succeſſors in all the Wars in which the Kingdom of the Two Sicilies ſhall hereafter be engaged. 'Tis ſaid his Majeſty has agreed to their Propoſals, and that he has allotted for them the Iſland of Vento di Terra.

East India Houſe, November 14, 1751.

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England Trading to the Eaſt Indies, do hereby give Notice, that a Quarterly General Court of the ſaid Company will be held at their Houſe in Leaden-Hall Street, on Wedneſday the 18th Day of December next, at Eleven in the Forenoon.

That the Tranſfer Books of the ſaid Company's Stock will be ſhut on Thurſday the 19th of ſaid December, at Two of the Clock, and opened again on Thurſday the 16th Day of January following.

That the Dividend Warrants on the ſaid Stock due at Chriſtmas next, will be ready to be delivered on Tueſday the 28th Day of ſaid January.

Advertiſements.
